- is your or your spouse's dependant because of a mental or physical infirmity, and has income of $13,2805 or less for 2025.

2 Requirements

To be entitled to advance payments of the tax credit for childcare expenses, you must meet the following requirements:

- You are (or are the spouse of) the biological or adoptive parent (legally or in fact) of a child living with you at the time of application.
- You are resident in Québec at the time of application, and you are a Canadian citizen, permanent resident or person on whom Canada has conferred refugee protection.
- You have a document from the childcare provider confirming the childcare fees and the number of days for which childcare services will be provided in 2025.
- You must estimate that, for 2025, you will be entitled to an amount exceeding $1,000 as a tax credit for childcare expenses. However, this requirement does not apply if you estimate that you will also be entitled to a work premium or an adapted work premium exceeding $500. You do not have to calculate your tax credit for childcare expenses. We will do the calculation for you and inform you of the results. However, you have to provide information and figures that are as accurate as possible. If the amount of the tax credit to which you are actually entitled is less than the amount estimated, you will have to pay income tax.

- You incur the childcare expenses for an eligible child living with you or your spouse, and you or your spouse is in one of the following situations (see Part 6 on page 4 for the documents that must be provided):
  - you hold an office or employment;
  - you actively operate a business;
  - you practise a profession;
  - you do research under a grant;
  - you are actively seeking employment;
  - you attend<sup>6</sup> a secondary school or take a course at an educational institution as a student enrolled in an educational program of at least three consecutive weeks, either on a full-time basis (courses and assignments must take up a minimum of 10 hours per week) or on a part-time basis (courses alone must take up a minimum of 12 hours per month);
  - you receive Québec parental insurance plan benefits or benefits related to a birth or an adoption under the Employment Insurance plan.
- You must agree that the payments be made by direct deposit.

Please note that we can deny your application or suspend or cancel your advance payments if you or your spouse received advance payments for a year prior to 2025 and did not file an income tax return for that year, or if such action is warranted in light of information or documents brought to our attention. While processing your application, we may also ask for additional documents or information.

3 Childcare expenses that do not qualify for the tax credit

The following are examples of expenses that do not qualify for the tax credit:

- the reduced contribution set by the government;
- a portion of the expenses paid for the basic services offered by a subsidized childcare provider at school on pedagogical days;
- amounts paid to one of the following persons:
  - the child's mother or father,
  - a person living in a conjugal relationship with you,
  - a person living with you and for whom the child is an eligible child,
  - a person under 18 who is related to you, or to the person living in a conjugal relationship with you, by blood, marriage (or civil union) or adoption, with the exception of a nephew or niece,
  - a person for whom you (or a person living with you and for whom the child is an eligible child) enter an amount on line 367 of the income tax return;
- expenses paid for general or specific teaching services;
- expenses for which another person is already claiming the tax credit for childcare expenses;
- expenses for which a person is or was entitled to a reimbursement or to any other form of assistance (unless the expenses were included in the calculation of the person's income and cannot be deducted in the calculation of the person's taxable income);
- fees paid for extra-curricular activities (even if the activities take place on a regular, ongoing basis);
- childcare expenses incurred for strictly personal reasons (for example, respite).

This amount is for 2024 and is indexed annually

4 Filing your income tax return

If you apply for advance payments, you must enter the total amount you received on line 441 of your 2025 income tax return. The total advance payments you received in the year will be shown on the RL-19 slip that we send you. In general, you must also complete Schedule C of your return to calculate the exact tax credit you are entitled to for the year.

If you receive advance payments during the year but are no longer resident in Québec on December 31, you will have to file an income tax return and possibly repay the advance payments you received.

5 Joint liability

If you receive an overpayment in 2025 and, at the end of the year, are unable to pay the related income tax, the person considered to be your spouse at that time for purposes of the tax credit for childcare expenses will be jointly liable for paying the tax.

6 Documents attesting to your or your spouse's situation

Pay slip

If you or your spouse earns employment income, enclose, for you or your spouse, a photocopy of the most recent pay slip or a letter from the employer specifying the gross wages.

Document attesting to the operation of a business

If you or your spouse earns income from operating a business, enclose photocopies of any recent documents proving that you or your spouse is operating it at the time of application. For example, you may provide a photocopy of a tender, a commercial lease, an advertisement for the business, or a purchase or sales invoice on which the name of the business appears.

Confirmation of a research grant

If a grant was awarded to you or your spouse to carry out research (or similar work), enclose, for you or your spouse, a photocopy of the confirmation of the grant.

Document attesting to an active job search

If you or your spouse is actively seeking employment, enclose a photocopy of a document proving that you or your spouse is receiving Employment Insurance benefits or any other document showing that you or your spouse is actively seeking employment. For example, you may provide a statement of kilometres travelled or a letter describing the steps taken to find employment.

Your job search must be sufficiently active to justify payment of childcare expenses. We consider that receiving Employment Insurance benefits is a good indicator of an active job search.

Document attesting to enrolment in an educational program

If you or your spouse attends a secondary school or takes a course at an educational institution as a student enrolled in an educational program of at least three consecutive weeks, either on a full-time basis (courses and assignments must take up a minimum of 10 hours per week) or on a part-time basis (courses alone must take up a minimum of 12 hours per month), enclose, for you or your spouse, a document attesting to enrolment in the program.

Document attesting to the receipt of parental insurance benefits

If you or your spouse pays childcare expenses during a parental leave, enclose, for you or your spouse, a document attesting to the receipt of parental, maternity, paternity or adoption benefits from the MESS or the receipt of benefits related to a birth or an adoption under the federal government's Employment Insurance plan or another province's plan.
